Veterans' Children Education Scheme (VCES)

VCES Eligibility - Professional Assessment

The Repatriation Commission has made a Determination under section 116A(1) of the Veterans' Entitlements Act 1986 which authorises the Commission to determine a class of persons, a member of which is an "eligible child of a veteran" for the purposes of eligibility for benefits under the Veterans' Children Education Scheme.

This stems from a range of government initiatives in response to a study into the health of Australia's Vietnam veteran community. The study found that suicides were more prevalent in Vietnam veterans' children than the Australian community standard.

The purpose of this determination is to give Vietnam veterans' children or former children, who are diagnosed with a depressive disorder or are regarded as vulnerable, eligibility for the benefits, support and guidance available through the Veterans' Children Education Scheme.

The information requested in the form overleaf is required to assist in assessing VCES eligibility for the person named. Please complete the form and return it directly to the Department of Veterans' Affairs. Please use fax if possible, otherwise mail. The address, fax and other contact details are shown below.

Authority to release personal information is attached.
